Job Application for Frontend Developer

Dear Mr./Ms./Dr. LastName,

After viewing your posting for a Frontend Developer on LinkedIn, I felt compelled to research XXX and to submit my application for your consideration. The core of my motivation is that my work has a societal impact. Pushing to make a difference and connect with people, one interaction at a time.

My passion to develop web apps that have social value, aligns with your mission of XXX. I offer three years of experience as a lead frontend developer for WORTH and a fullstack developer for EagleScience. I consider myself a real team player who understands the importance of teamwork, collaboration, and open communication.

I've attached a copy of my resume detailing my experience and skill-set. Although all of the professional projects I've worked in have been internal projects, you can find attached code samples of my latest work.

Feel free to contact me anytime, I'm easy to talk to! Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Christos Tselepidas
